Opening Prayer

Father God we come to worship you and to give you thanks. As we listen to your word open our ears to hear, and our eyes to see the new thing you are doing in our church and in our lives. Amen

Reading: Isaiah 43:16-21

Verse of the week: Isaiah 43:19

See I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?

Thought for the Day:

Today we begin a new series on Keeping the Faith. Our all-age service is based on the text 'See, I am doing a New Thing' from Isaiah 43:19. I would encourage you to read this wonderful passage. First, we look at verses 1-7. The first piece of advice here is not to be afraid. God promises to be with us. We must look up because God is going to make a new way for us in verses 14-21. It might seem as if we are in the desert and the lights are going out. Despite all our failings and weaknesses as people and as a church, God is still in control, and He is going to do a New Thing here. Just you wait and see! We need to be listening. What could it be? How could we find out what it is? What is God asking us to do?

Thank you so much for your support for the Christian Aid appeal this year. In the Boston area £3,452.73 was raised by donations from church members, church collections, the sponsored walk and a few house to house collections.
